PALTRY PURSUIT

an adventure in floccinaucinihilipilification

JUST HOW FAMILIAR WITH RICHMOND ARE YOU???

That's what we intend to find out on May 30, 1987.

You'll get to the Stratford Hills Shopping Center (Forest Hill Ave @ Hathaway) between 1:30 & 2:00 PM to register. You give us $10.00 and we supply you with an amazing afternoon, a delicious dinner and an enjoyable evening.

We'll set you loose to seek out little known, well know and never cared about facts within the Richmond City limits.

You'll have exactly 4 hours since you must be at the home of Joyce Stanley (3308 Keichtee Drive) by 6:00 PM to turn in your findings and enjoy a Pizza Party followed by an evening of games.

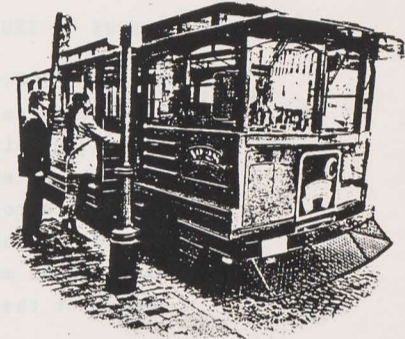

The two responsible for this event are:
Joyce Stanley 323-0208
and
Beth Mills 798-5536

So you can contact us for more information and let us know if you want to join in the fun.

Meanwhile: start really looking at the City. Arm yourself with both the yellow and white pages, and books or pamphlets about Richmond. And, most importantly - a map of the City of Richmond.

Autocross: Racing in the family car

By News Leader sports writer

The black Jetta, alone on the race track, moved precisely through an S-curve. The tires screeched slightly, and the driver swayed in the seat as the car leaned into the turn.

No, it wasn't an advertisement boasting about the handling or engineering of an automobile. The Jetta was one of about 65 competitors at a recent autocross event at Southside Speedway.

Several types of cars, from race vehicles to family cars, streak around the 1/3-mile track going for the best time.

The event at Southside was the Virginia Motor Sport Club's fourth in a series of five race days called the Series 5 Road Course. The last event will be held Sunday.

"It's the closest thing to racing," said Bill Ingram, a 45-year-old Richmonder.

Said Rich Fohl, "You can take advantage of your Porsche or Corvette and drive to the edge. You get to learn more about your car, and you learn how to drive better."

The autocross is split into four large categories of cars — stocks, street cars with little modification; street prepared, street cars with more modification; modified, car souped up beyond street legal; and formula, race cars.

"It's our baseball or softball substitute," said Gene Cooley of his 1976 Tui mini-formula race car. "It's like a real race car. ... It's great for your ego, because it's such a challenge to put together."

Cooley and his partner, Richard West, both Richmonders, spent $5,000 to buy the car in April. They do $200 worth of maintenance every month to race the car in an event that offers no cash prizes. Competitors win trophies.

"There's nothing else I can do with it," said Cooley, 40. "I could put it in the garage and look at it. I can't put it in the street."

That's all Bob Matthews of Fall Church wanted for his Stingray when he bought it in 1970. Matthews, an appliance salesman, modified the suspension and the engine of the blue Corvette for racing in autocrosses.

Matthews, that day's winner in the Street Prepared Class D division, said he has not needed to make a repair since the initial changes 17 years ago.

"I can run down here without a muffler, and it sounds great," Matthews said. "I do it for the trophy and the chance to hear the motor run."

Matthews took every member of his family who made the trip to Southside on a "fun run." Mathews' wife, 15-year-old daughter, 15-year-old nephew and 10-year-old daughter were given a chance to go around the track in the car.

"Watching autocross is dull," Mathews said. "It's fun if you're competing, and I thought I'd let the family in on it today."

Safety is stressed at the autocrosses. Many drivers said one of the chief goals of the autocross is to make people better drivers. Cars can travel up to 60 mph in a relatively safe environment.

Drivers must go low through the curves, away from the wall.

"The worst you can do is embarrass yourself by spinning off the road," Cooley said. "That's it."

The appeal of autocross is that a race car or modifications isn't needed to participate. Fohl drove his 1987 Civic hatchback to victory in the Street Prepared class C division.

Fohl, a dermatologist, put racing tires on the car for the autocross and puts standard tires back on so he can take it to work.

"Some people might look down on a Honda when it's on the road," Fohl said. "But I can put it in the autocross, and it's in its element."

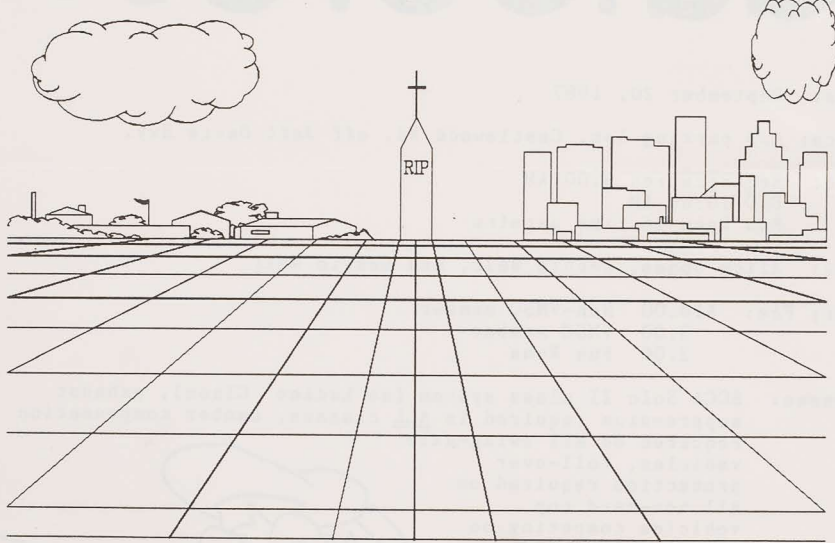

Other drivers cannot afford to be so bold about their prowess on the track.

The driver of the Jetta did not want his named used, because his warranty and insurance don't cover the use of his car on the racetrack.

"You can come out here and do as little as you want and go as slow as you want until you learn it," the driver said. "You get that feel (of the track) on an interstate on-ramp."

MANY THANKS TO OUR WORKERS: NEALE DICKINSON, SCOTT POWELL, AND DOUG BURTON

On January 21, 1977 Bill and Shelia Hunter became the very proud parents of a beautiful baby boy, William VanCleave Hunter, II. The miracle of birth had created a wonderfully happy trio.

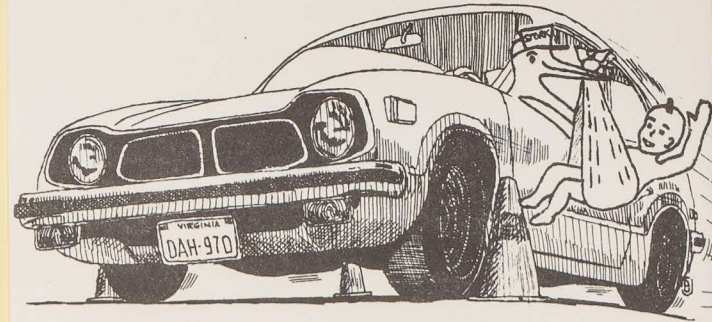

Before long, Will became a constant fixture at VMSC events. As an infant he could be found napping through the noise of an autocross or co-navigating a rally from the backseat. By the time he was a toddler, he loved anything with wheels. His room became a garage for pint size and pocket size vehicles. As he grew, you'd see him stand proud as his parents competed in "Blackie", their 1200 Honda Civic. By hanging around tech with his dad, he'd gather information about the cars that came through. He learned about motorsports and the lessons of sportsmanship that accompany them.

On vacation every Labor Day at Buckroe Beach, when the "Go Carts" cry went up, Will was in the thick of it. Maneuvering the cart around the track, he dreamed of owning his own. That dream came true on his tenth Christmas. His first set of real wheels!

But his world went beyond cars. He participated in "Olympics of the Mind" where, challenged by a problem they would seek ways to solve it. He even traveled with his school team to the State Finals!

Will developed an interest in space and the astronauts that traveled into it's unknown territory. As his fascination grew, he memorized names and missions and was quite impressive with his knowledge on the subject. Now his room boasted posters and books on these heros. With the release of the movie "Top Gun" he found his dream for the future. Being such a pilot would allow him the thrill of speed and the adventure of soaring into the clouds. He even had his hair cut and styled like one of the movie's characters.

He also joined the swim team at the Rockville Community Center. Through practice and determination he swam his way to records and honors. His willingness to learn and drive to succeed earned him the respect of his teammates and coach.

A boy...

In his very own go-cart on December 28, 1986.

Hands on the go cart wheel on Labor Day week-end at Buckroe Beach, 1984.

Series 3, July 9, 1978 on the sidelines with his own Honda Civic.

Working a checkpoint with Chuck Madison on the Main Course rally, September 27, 1981.

Medal received at Swim Team Champs, July 25, 1987.

Raised with love, his parents filled his life with affection and happiness. Through them he learned the values that gave him a bright outlook and made him the fascinating young man we enjoyed.

But on July 29th, 1987, his life was taken. Ironically, by means of an automobile. All the eagerness and hope, the dreams and desires, stolen. No longer could we enjoy his company. A reminder of our own youth now gone.

However, we are fortunate enough to have many memories of the time each of us spent with him. Through these thoughts and in our hearts, he will remain with us and share our days. His photographs can be found throughout these books and remind us of how much we enjoyed the all too short time he was with us. We have also been given the opportunity to learn that life is too precious to let things that appear to be everyday be taken for granted.

The Will Hunter Memorial Scholarship Fund has been set up primarily by members of the VMSC to give financial assistance to a collegebound member of Will's swim team. Donations are always welcome.

Before your next autocross run, look to the sky and tip your helmet to Will. Say a prayer of thanks for the time we had. And remember, his force is with us.

Best seat in the place is with Dad at a September 3, 1979 PSCC event.
