ALLEY

• It's not very glamorous, but VMSC is about to become proud owner of a typewriter. Heretofore, correspondence, minutes, Checkpoints and what-have-you has been done catch as catch can, so in answer to the problem, the board of directors appointed a committee to look into what was available in a used typewriter with authority to spend up to $100 for an acceptable machine. Does your Checkpoints look different lately? (What probably is needed worse, however, is a new typist!)

• On a more glamorous note, Karen Marie Jenkins has become the proud owner of a mother and father, Marie and George. Congratulations, Karen, for having such nice parents!

• And on an exotic note---when John Kessler called New York looking for parts for his exotic BMW 507, the parts man at Hoffman said, "Yes, who do you know that has one?"

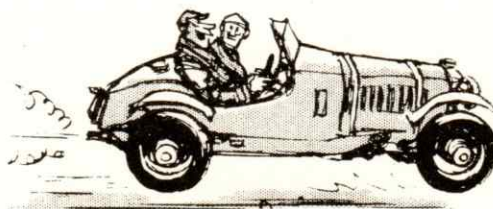

• Ed Cobb attended the SEVSCO meeting in Hampton the other night to make a pitch for the Nassau tour. We don't know how that went, but the next SEVSCO meeting will be at Ed's house and VMSC has a field trial scheduled as a class A event on their calendar for October 25.

• We never can remember what "SEVSCO" stands for but we do know that it is an effective group of representatives for the various Tidewater area clubs which has as its purpose the co-ordinated scheduling of events. Generally speaking, there hasn't been a need for such a group in Richmond because VMSC has been the only club of long-standing. If some of the others such as Volvo and Corvair continue to grow, a little co-ordination may be to our advantage.
