ALLEY

Hooray, warm weather has come and the tops can stay down, or off (like the Greenwoods, with their unique tonneau.)

A sad goodbye must be given to the Gulette's they are leaving Richmond to points further north. Hope they do as well in a club up there.

Yes, we must admit we were the ones who found to-many green roofs. We tried getting revenge by drowning the O.D. standing in the middle of the stream taking pictures, but apparently he survived. Just kidding it was a very good Rallye with many new and interesting roads. Hope we have some more new territory this year.

The Picnic Rallye is coming up in July, so don't you all make any plans except to attend this event. More information will be forth coming.

Don't forget that lil 'Ole trip to Nassau. Just talk to all the past members that have been to see what a time you would have.

Our old watches were auctioned off at the Autocross in May, and we now have our new ones in fine working order with covers. The Chehaskes have kindly donated the use of their garage to store all of our equipment, thus ending up with a da-glo floor as some of our old pylons needed a new exterior.

For all of you who are not familiar with our summer schedule, a night Rallye follows a very short meeting. During this time we do not have movies, so you will have to wait till fall to see the Indy 500 race. These events are usually held around the Richmond area not lasting more than two hours except in rare cases; so you will have plenty of time for a cool one.

A plea again goes out for any interesting pictures, articles etc. on events. Last months "I. Was Their" writer got many a curious question as to who was it, so who ever you are how about another article soon!

welcome
